Shepherd's Voice

Dear Friends,

Greetings from Bishop's House, Kohima!

The months of April and May have been very significant for each of us and for the Church. On April 21st 2025, the Catholic Church and the world bid farewell to Pope Francis, a humble shepherd and prophetic voice who led the Church for over twelve years. His life and ministry reminded us that the Church is called to be a "field hospital," reaching out to the wounded, the forgotten, and the marginalized. His simplicity, his love for the poor, his bold calls for justice and care for our common home, and above all, his firm emphasis on mercy and fraternity, have left an indelible mark on the history of the Church. As he once beautifully reminded us, "Death is not the end of everything, but a new beginning". We entrust him to the eternal embrace of God.

On May 8th, 2025, the conclave of Cardinals elected Pope Leo XIV, the new shepherd for Catholics worldwide. In God's providence, the See of Peter has not remained vacant for long. We rejoice and pray for the new Pope as he takes up this great responsibility of guiding the Church in these complex times.

His election is a beacon of hope, reminding us that the Lord never abandons His flock.

Now we are passing through a very critical time in history. The tension between Ukraine and Russia, Israel and Palestine has spilled over to other parts and nations- India and Pakistan, Iran and Israel, many of the African nations has strife within or outside the national borders with world powers supporting overtly or covertly, directly or indirectly. These perilous situations can lead to much suffering to humanity and nature and even lead to extermination of many. It is in this context as believers we need to hold fast to our faith and hope especially in this year of special jubilee when we travel as pilgrims of hope. The de-escalation of tensions and the easing of conflicts among world powers is the need of hour and peace is always possible when dialogue, respect, and justice prevail over violence and pride. Let us, as Disciples of Christ and as Pilgrims of Hope, commit ourselves to building peace — in our families, in our communities, and in our world.

I also congratulate Nagaland Catholic Youth Movement (NCYM) under the able guidance of its Director Rev. Fr. KoktoKurian and its executive who hosted the 5th Regional Youth Convention. I thank all those who collaborated with them, especially Catholic Association of Nagaland (CAN), Nagaland Catholic Women Association (NCWA), Cathedral parish community and many others who generously helped in various ways.

I conclude by praying that the legacy of Pope Francis and the ministry of Pope Leo XIV inspire us to be a Church that is merciful, inclusive, and courageous, guide us to deeper communion with Christ and one another.

Yours in Christ,

Most Rev. Dr. James Thoppil

JOURNEYING THROUGH GRIEF, GRATITUDE, AND HOPE

Dear Readers,

The past months have been a time of profound emotion and reflection for all of us. In the month of April, we bid farewell to Pope Francis, a shepherd who reminded the world that the Church is not a fortress but a home for all — especially the poor, the wounded, and the forgotten. His legacy of compassion, care for creation, and relentless call for mercy will continue to echo in the heart of the Church. In God's providence, the month of May witnessed the election of Pope Leo XIV, the 267th successor of St. Peter. His first words from the balcony of St. Peter's Basilica, "Peace be with you," rekindled hope in millions of hearts.

With hearts filled with gratitude, we also thanked our parents whose love and dedication shape the very fabric of our lives. In the month of May, we joyfully celebrated Mothers' Day, honouring the women — mothers, grandmothers, and spiritual mothers — whose unfailing love, hidden sacrifices, and quiet strength nurture not only their families but also the faith of our communities. In June, we turned our hearts in gratitude to all Fathers and those who have embraced the sacred role of fatherhood. To all mothers and fathers, we extend not only our deepest appreciation but also our prayers — that they may be continually strengthened and blessed in their noble vocation of shaping lives and building the domestic Church.

The month of June also concluded with a moment of great joy and hope — the Regional Youth Convention (RYC), which brought together more than 2000 young people from across the Northeast to our Mary Help of Christians Cathedral, Kohima from the 27th to the 30th of June. It was a powerful witness to the vibrancy, faith, and enthusiasm of our youth.

As we navigate these significant moments — grief for our beloved Pope, gratitude for mothers and fathers, the hope of new beginnings with Pope Leo XIV, and the renewed energy from our young people — we are reminded that the Church, like life itself, moves forward. We journey together, carrying the light of faith through every joy and sorrow.

United in prayer and mission, let us walk as Pilgrims of Hope, confident that Christ leads His Church and His people!

CHRISM MASS 2025 CELEBRATED AT ST. JOSEPH CATHOLIC CHURCH, VISWEMA

The Holy Chrism Mass and Priesthood Day 2025 organized by the Diocese of Kohima at St Joseph Catholic Church, Viswema on April 10 drew an estimated 1,500 attendees. The attendees included 138 priests, religious sisters from various congregations, leaders from the Catholic Association of Nagaland (CAN), Nagaland Catholic Women Association (NCWA), and Nagaland Catholic Youth Movement (NCYM), as well as church members and youth from neighbouring villages.

While the event is usually held at Mary Help of Christians Cathedral, the mother church of Nagaland, the 2025 celebration was hosted for the first time by St Joseph Catholic Church, Viswema, under the shepherdship of Rev Dr James Thoppil, Bishop of Kohima. According to a press release, the Chrism Mass includes two key Catholic traditions: the blessing of three oils—catechumens, chrism, and the sick—by the Bishop, and the renewal of priestly vows.

In his sermon, Rev Dr Thoppil noted that it is particularly directed to the priests and that the Chrism Mass reminds them of the 'oneness in Christ' through the Sacraments of Baptism and Holy Orders, and the unity they share with their Bishop and the presbyterate. The renewal of one's priestly relationships, identity, and mission is essential for a flourishing and healthy ministerial life, he added. He stressed that this can begin by taking time during the season of Lent to prepare for the Chrism Mass, reflecting on the promises that recall the words and postures of ordination, and recommitting to a deepening relationship with the Holy Trinity, one's Bishop, and one's presbyterate.

The Bishop also highlighted to the congregation that priests today face many difficulties and challenges in carrying out priestly promises, including uncertainties, which can lead to dejection and discouragement. Thus, he requested prayers and support for the priests from the congregation so that they can carry out their mission with renewed dedication.

Earlier, before entering into the Lectionaries of the Holy Chrism Mass, Rev Fr Emmanuel Patton, the Parish Priest of Mary Help of Christians Parish, Jakhama, welcomed all the presbyterate and the congregation to the event. Later, after the Holy Mass, the laity associations of CAN, NCWA, and NCYM, along with the Viswema Catholic Community, organised a short felicitation programme for the priest attendees, the release added.

A JOYOUS CELEBRATION—COMMITMENT TO SERVE

On 24 April 2025, the Congregation of the Mother of Carmel (CMC) Sanjoe Province celebrated a significant milestone with the Vesting and Religious Profession of Seven Novices. Most Rev. Dr. James Thoppil, the Bishop of Kohima along with other 51 Priests presided over the ceremony, filling the atmosphere with joy and vibrancy. Rev. Sr. Dr. Kaisa Rosalind CMC, the Provincial Superior accorded a warm welcome to the gathering.

Bishop James encouraged and challenged the entire congregation especially the Novices with a powerful and thought provoking homily. Our limitations are not a hindrance to God's call. Despite our human limitations we celebrate the courage and determination of these novices to live the Religious Life in the service of God and the Church. Our Religious Profession is not just a commitment to a particular way of life but a call to an ongoing spiritual growth and renewal. One of the biggest challenges of today's world is to resist the temptation to go in the way of the world. Religious Profession does not mean an end to struggles in life to the difficulties but a beginning of a real journey that the apostles and martyrs have walked.

Following Jesus requires a willingness to let go off our attachments and follow Him whole heartedly.

The day added more colour and grace with the presence of a good number of Religious Sisters, Church leaders and faithful from far and near.

God be praised for such a wonderful day filled with an abundance of grace and blessings. CONGRATULATIONS DEAR SISTERS.

KOHIMA DIOCESE HOLDS REQUIEM EUCHARISTIC CELEBRATIONS FOR LATE POPE FRANCIS

The Diocese of Kohima, under the leadership of its Chief Shepherd, Most Rev. Dr. James Thoppil, organized three official Requiem Eucharistic Celebrations to pray for the repose of the soul of the late Holy Father, Pope Francis. These solemn Masses were held at three major parishes of the Diocese, allowing the faithful to come together in mourning and remembrance.

The first Requiem Mass was celebrated on April 24 at Holy Cross Church, Dimapur, followed by the second on April 25 at Mary Help of Christians Cathedral, Kohima. The final Mass is scheduled to take place on April 26 at St. Joseph Church, Chümoukedima.

During the Eucharistic Celebration at the Cathedral, Bishop James Thoppil paid heartfelt tribute to the late Pontiff, who passed away on Monday in the 12th year of his papacy. In his homily, the Bishop noted that the entire world is mourning the loss of a beloved spiritual leader. "What was special about Pope Francis was his charismatic personality, his simplicity, his sense of closeness to people, and the fresh—often unconventional—vocabulary

Latin American pope, and the first non-European pope in over a millennium. He also noted that Pope Francis led the Church in the wake of another major historical moment—the resignation of Pope Benedict XVI, the first such event in 600 years.

Bishop Thoppil further reflected on some of the most memorable and impactful quotes of Pope Francis, such as: "Don't forget to pray for me," "Don't forget the poor," "The smell of the sheep," "The Church as a field hospital," "Throwaway culture," and "Incisive feminine presence." These were not mere words, he said, but expressions that the late Pope embodied throughout his life and ministry.

Quoting the Pope himself, the Bishop reminded the congregation, "Death is not the end of everything, but a new beginning."

The Requiem Mass was attended by dozens of priests, religious men and women, and hundreds of faithful who came to pay their respects and pray for the eternal repose of the soul of Pope Francis.

On 9th May, 2025, the Catholic Community in Nagaland (Diocese of Kohima), joins the Universal Church in profound joy and thanksgiving at the election of His Holiness Pope Leo XIV, formerly His Eminence Cardinal Robert Francis Prevost, as the 267th successor to the Apostle Peter and Supreme Pontiff of the Roman Catholic Church.

Pope Leo XIV (born Robert Francis Prevost, September 14, 1955) is an American Catholic prelate who served as prefect of the Dicastery for Bishops and president of the Pontifical Commission for Latin America since 2023. He previously served as Bishop of Chiclayo in Peru from 2015 to 2023, and was prior general of the Order of Saint Augustine from 2001 to 2013. In 2015 Cardinal Prevost became a naturalized citizen of Peru as confirmed by Peru's National Civil Registry. Born in Chicago, Prevost spent the early part of his career there working for the Augustinians. He served in Peru from 1985 to 1986 and from 1988 to 1998 as a parish pastor, diocesan official, seminary teacher and administrator. He was made a cardinal in 2023.

congratulations to the newly elected Holy Father on behalf of the clergy, religious, and faithful of the Diocese. His Excellency remarked that the election of Pope Leo XIV is a moment of grace and renewal for the Church and a visible reminder of the abiding guidance of the Holy Spirit in the life of the Church.

Bishop Thoppil further emphasized the unifying role of the papacy in a global Church: "There is no white or black Catholic, no Latino or Asian Catholic, no European or American Catholic. There is only one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. This is the beauty of our faith—a

In an official message released from the Bishop's House, Most Rev. Dr. James Thoppil, Bishop of Kohima, conveyed warm

Church that transcends cultures, languages, and borders, united under one faith, one baptism, and one Shepherd."

His choice of the name Leo, brings to our mind Pope Leo XIII (1878-1903), who in 1886 established the Catholic hierarchy in India, sowing the seeds of a strong, self-sustaining and missionary Church in our land and the prophetic words of Pope Leo XIII in 1983, "Filiuti, India, administrabit salutis: (Your sons, O India will be the heralds of your salvation). It was Pope Leo XIII who brought out the first land mark social encyclical of the Church, (Rerum Novarum) that paved the way for the social teaching of the Church. Pope Leo XIV's choice of name signals a commitment to social justice that is very much in line with the late Pope Francis' global ministry. The new Pope is not a stranger to India. He visited India two decades ago when he was the Prior General of the Saint Augustinian Order to attend a priestly ordination.

Reaffirming the Catholic's filial devotion to the Holy Father, the Bishop called upon all parishes, institutions, and communities to offer fervent prayers for Pope Leo XIV, that he may be strengthened with divine wisdom, pastoral courage, and a heart filled with love for all peoples. "Let us pray that Pope Leo XIV may be a bridge-builder, a father to the poor and marginalized, and a voice of peace and justice in our troubled world," the Bishop urged.

As the Church celebrates this historic moment, the Catholic Church in Nagaland join in jubilation and prayer, welcoming Pope Leo XIV with open hearts and firm faith.

Ad multos annos, Holy Father!
Long live Pope Leo XIV!

The convention was inaugurated by Meghalaya Chief Minister Conrad K. Sangma, who hoisted the RYC flag and encouraged the youth to be agents of hope, urging them to embrace entrepreneurship, resilience, and faith as tools for personal and societal transformation.

The inaugural Holy Eucharist was celebrated by Most Rev. Dr. Linus Neli, Archbishop of Imphal and Chairman of NERYC, who lauded the youth as the "light and soul" of Northeast India and a symbol of hope for the Church's future.

The first day's sessions included talks by Rev. Fr. Vekupa George, Parish Priest of Sacred Heart Parish, Chizami, on "Identity and Purpose of Youth in Christ through Holy Sacraments," and Rev. Fr. Joseph Thohrii on "Pilgrims of Hope: Moving Forward in Synodality."

Bishop of Kohima, Most Rev. Dr. James Thoppil, welcomed the delegates, describing young people as the "salt that gives taste," vital for enriching the Church and society. Archbishop Victor Lyngdoh of Shillong also addressed the gathering, calling on the youth to be joyful "Pilgrims of Hope" and ambassadors of peace.

Sunday saw over 5,000 faithful attending the Holy Eucharist, celebrated by Bishop Thoppil. Reflecting on the Feast of St. Peter and St. Paul, Bishop underscored the unity and diversity of the Church, urging youth to build their lives on the solid foundation of faith.

Enriching sessions followed, including EdlinaKerketta on "Navigating Peer Pressure," and a panel on "Youth as the Now of the Church," with Johnny Ruangmei encouraging digital evangelisation, Ketholelie Basil Whuorie addressing drug abuse, and JeremaiKrong offering insights on healthy relationships. Rev. Fr. Michael Makri spoke on "Navigating Social Media from a Christian Perspective," highlighting its role in faith formation and evangelisation.

The ICYM North East Excellence Awards 2025 were presented to outstanding youth by KethosituoSekhose, Director of Youth Resources and Sports, Nagaland, with former Arunachal Pradesh Chief Minister NabamTuki as the special guest.

The convention concluded with Elias T. Lotha, Commissioner of Transport, Government of Nagaland and Advisor to the Catholic Association of Nagaland, lowering the RYC flag, officially bringing the event to a close.

50 Hours Chain Adoration

The Jubilee 2025 with the theme, "Pilgrims of Hope," is an extraordinary event in the life of the Catholic Church that invites all the faithful to join in a time of grace, conversion, and spiritual renewal. This Jubilee, proclaimed by Late Pope Francis, will be a call to deepen our faith and live more fully the mercy of God.

The Jubilee is a special year of forgiveness and reconciliation. In our tradition, a jubilee is celebrated every 25 years. It is an opportunity for the faithful to reconcile with God and receive abundant spiritual graces. During the jubilee year plenary indulgences are given to receive complete forgiveness of temporal punishments for sins, it is an invitation to start anew in our Christian life.

Among the many programmes, special attention is given to Eucharistic celebrations to deepen our faith in the real presence of Jesus, his body and blood, soul and divinity in the Holy Eucharist.

In respond to this jubilee year 2025, Report on the 50 Hours Chain Adoration in Honour of the Jubilee Year 2025, the Diocese of Kohima observed a 50-hour Chain Adoration in honour of the Jubilee Year 2025 under the theme "Pilgrims of Hope". The event was organized by the Newman Pastoral Centre in collaboration with St. Joseph's Parish, Chümoukedima.

The holy hours of Eucharistic Adoration commenced with a solemn Mass on the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, held on Friday, 27th June at 7:00 AM. This celebration also marked the 350th anniversary of the apparitions of the Sacred Heart of Jesus to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque. The Holy Mass was presided over by Most Rev. Dr. James Thoppil, Bishop of Kohima.

In his homily, Bishop Thoppil emphasized that the Sacred Heart is a symbol of God's love made manifest. He reminded the faithful that we are called not only to experience God's love but also to share it. "Only when we share God's love with others," he said, "do we truly become agents of His love."

Throughout the 50 hours, adoration was carried out in shifts by various parishes, institutions, and formation houses from the Dimapur region, each assigned specific intentions. The faithful responded with great devotion, spending time in thanksgiving adoration before the Lord present in the Eucharist. Refreshments were served for all who came at Newman Pastoral centre.

The Chain Adoration concluded on Sunday, 29th June at 9:00 AM, on the solemnity of the Feast of Saints Peter and Paul. The closing began with a prayer of deliverance led by Rev. Fr. Sabu Chenackal, Director of Newman Pastoral Centre, Chümoukedima, followed by a solemn benediction by Rev. Fr. George Rino, Parish Priest of St. Joseph's Parish, Chümoukedima.

The celebration culminated in a solemn Holy Mass offered by Bishop Emeritus Jose Mukala. In his homily, he reflected on the lives and personalities of Saints Peter and Paul, encouraging the faithful to be "fired with love and zeal for the mission of Christ."

We are deeply grateful to God for the grace-filled opportunity to encounter Him in the Holy Eucharist. Our heartfelt thanks go out to all the parishes, institutions, and individuals especially from Dimapur regions who supported, participated in, and collaborated with us to make these sacred days a spiritual success.

THE HOLY EUCHARIST AND THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

One of the most fundamental teachings and practices of the Catholic Church is the Holy Eucharist. The Church derives its life from the Eucharist. The Eucharist is the “source and summit” of the Catholic faith because it is the sacrament in which Jesus gives Himself to us completely. It is a mystery of love. Through the Eucharist, the faithful are intimately united with Christ and receive the grace to live out their Christian vocation in the world. Catholics are privileged believers because of the continuous grace that flows from the Eucharist.

The word “Eucharist” comes from the Latin word eucharistia, meaning “thanksgiving.” It commemorates Jesus’ Last Supper, where He took bread and wine and changed them to be His Body and Blood. The Eucharist is the real presence of Christ, not just symbolic, but truly and substantially present in the consecrated elements of bread and wine. During the last supper with the apostles, Jesus took a loaf of bread and said, “Take; this is my body.” He took the cup and said, “This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many.” Some people interpret this as only a symbol. However, the institution of the Eucharist is not a symbol. Jesus did not say, this is the symbol of my body or this is the symbol of my blood. St. Cyril of Jerusalem said, “Do not, therefore, regard the bread and wine as simply that, for they are, according to the Master’s declaration, the body and blood of Christ. Even though the senses may suggest to you the other, let faith make you firm. Do not judge in this matter by taste, but by fully assured by faith, not doubting that you have been deemed worthy of the body and blood of Christ.” (Catechetical Discourse: Mystagogic 4:22:9) (The Essential Catholic Survival Guide, 2005).

The Catholic Church, founded by Jesus Christ, continue to keep the Eucharist as the centre of all worship, prayers and sacrifice. Thus, no power on earth can destroy the Church (Mt. 16:18). The priests represent Christ at the altar and offer prayer and sacrifice to God on behalf of the faithful believers. It is both a sacrament and a sacrifice, rooted in the words and actions of Jesus Christ at the Last Supper.

When the ordained Catholic Priests consecrate the Bread and the Wine, it becomes the Body and Blood of Christ. This is called “Transubstantiation”. This right is reserved only for validly ordained priests of the Catholic Church. Thus, the blessing of bread and wine by pastors or reverends of other denominations does not fall under the rite of the Holy Eucharist. In Nagaland, the practice of the so-called “Lord’s Supper” in the protestant churches is not the Holy Eucharist. There is a big chasm between the Catholic Church and Protestant denominations in this regard. There are theological, traditional and practical differences. Adapting the practices of the Catholic Church is not an assurance or justification for the deeds.

Jesus prepared the listeners concerning the Eucharist of which they could not grasp the meaning. The Gospel of John chapter 6 narrates the Holy Eucharist in detail. The Jews asked Jesus what sign he could perform so that they might believe in him. Jesus replied, “I am the bread of life; he who comes to me shall not hunger, and he who believes in me shall never thirst.” “I am the living bread which came down from heaven; if anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever; and the bread which I shall give for the life of the world is my flesh.” “Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of man and drink his blood, you have no life in you; he who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life." Human beings can only derive life by believing in the life of Jesus, fully present in the Holy Eucharist. Jesus is truly present in the Eucharist – Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity. There is fullness of Christ in the Eucharist. St. Paul wrote to the Corinthians, "The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ?" (1st Cor. 10:16). He further emphasised and said, "For as you eat the bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord until he comes again (1st Cor. 11:26). The Holy Eucharist applies to us all the power and merit of the Sacrifice of Jesus on the Cross (Morrow, L. L. 2002).

Blessed Carlo Acutis (1991-2006) conducted research on the miracles of the Holy Eucharist. He listed around 32 Eucharistic miracles. In the Eucharistic miracles, flesh and blood are indeed seen, or one without the other, depending on the miracle. The purpose of these miracles is to show that we should not look for the external appearance (bread and wine), but for the substance, the true reality of things, which is flesh and blood (B. Thomas, 2022). Throughout the history of the Catholic Church, Jesus reveals himself clearly in the Eucharist itself and the Eucharistic miracles. There are 100+ Eucharistic miracles approved by the Church. Scientific studies highlight its authenticity. The latest approved Eucharistic miracle was at Vilakkannur, Kerala, in the month of May 2025. The miracle occurred back in November 2013. The real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist sustains the Church in faith and action, enabling it to proclaim the Gospel.

Apart from the Holy Eucharist, the Host is kept in the tabernacle and is exposed for adoration. This is called "Eucharistic Adoration." The abiding presence of Jesus in the Eucharist is proof of his everlasting love for humanity. "Remain in me, as I remain in you." (Jn. 15:4). When the Blessed Sacrament is in the tabernacle, a sanctuary lamp is kept burning before it to indicate and honour the presence of Christ (canon 940). The tabernacle is kept in the most worthy place in the Church to emphasise and manifest the truth of the real presence of Christ in the Blessed Sacrament (Catechism of the Catholic Church 1379).

The Catholic Church celebrates the Jubilee year 2025 (proclaimed by late Pope Francis) with the theme, "Pilgrims of Hope." The Jubilee invites all the faithful to join in a time of grace, conversion, and spiritual renewal (OSV News, 2024). "The coming Jubilee will thus be a Holy Year marked by the hope that does not fade, our hope in God. May it help us to recover the confident trust that we require, in the Church and in society, in our interpersonal relationships, in international relations, and in our task of promoting the dignity of all persons and respect for God's gift of creation." (Pope Francis, Spes Non Confundit 25). Some of the important hallmarks for the faithful are pilgrimages, pious visits to sacred places, works of mercy and penance (Nicole O'Leary, 2024).

As part of the celebration of the Jubilee year, the Catholic Church in Nagaland is observing 50 hours of "Eucharistic Adoration" praying for various intentions of Nagaland and the world. It commenced on 27th June - the feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, with the Holy Eucharist officiated by Most Rev. Dr. James Thoppil, Bishop of Kohima, Nagaland. The Eucharistic Adoration will end on 29th June – Feast of St. Peter and St. Paul. The fruits of the Holy Eucharist are granted to those participating in it devoutly, not only in answer to their prayers, but directly in virtue of the sacrifice itself, through which the merits of Christ are applied to them (Morrow, L. L., 2002). God bless you.

SD RAYMOND COMPASSIONATE PASTOR

On July 16, 2021, the Congregation of the Sisters of the Little Flower of Bethany, Mangalore across the globe celebrated with great exuberance its centenary and the year 2025 marks the 150th Birth Anniversary and 125th Priestly Ordination Anniversary of the Servant of God, Monsignor Raymond Francis Camillus Mascarenhas,(hereafter SD Raymond) a revered founder of Bethany Congregation and a Compassionate Pastor. Barely after 14 years of his ordination, SD Raymond was sent to a barren land, Bendur situated within the jurisdiction of Mangalore town to take care of a newly carved out parish in 1914.¹ His evangelical urge is an impetus for the Bethany Sisters to be the ambassadors of the gospel. SD Raymond saw possibilities amidst limitations, a missionary filled with Zeal for the gospel who dared to choose the unbeaten path, beyond his own conventional boundaries to serve God's people in his Priestly Ministry. He embraced challenges with daring courage and unwavering faith in God's Providence and a Trailblazer who set new paths in responding to the needs of the people of his time.

Two things strike me the most as I write this article: Jesus' love for Bethany in North East and the whole-hearted response of Bethany sisters to the mandate given. At this juncture, it is worthwhile to recall the mandate given to SD Raymond - to have the Gospel preached to the poor - and to reflect on the extraordinary ways God worked through this holy priest, the Servant of God, whose life was a radiant reflection of Christ's love and compassion of God. God centeredness enabled him to read the signs of time respond to them so as to reach out to the poor and needy in compassion and love. The life and mission of Bethany sisters in India and other parts of the world especially Bethany in North East bear testimony to the dream-vision, the evangelical zeal, and the spirituality and the synergy which characterized SD Raymond.

FR. BERNARD LALOO ORDAINED AS AUXILIARY BISHOP OF SHILLONG

In a momentous celebration of faith, Fr. Bernard Laloo was ordained as the new Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of Shillong during a solemn Eucharistic celebration at Calvary Cathedral. The ordination was presided over by Archbishop Victor Lyngdoh and attended by Apostolic Nuncio Archbishop Leopoldo Girelli, along with three regional archbishops, thirteen bishops, three auxiliary bishops, two emeriti bishops, and hundreds of priests.

Bishop Laloo, notably the youngest bishop in the region—a distinction previously held by Bishop Wilbert Marwein of Nongstoin—was appointed to serve as a beacon of hope for the faithful. Auxiliary Bishop of Tura, Jose Chirackal, highlighted the significance of youthful leadership in the Church during the occasion.

The event drew over 150,000 faithful, including Meghalaya Chief Minister Conrad K. Sangma, Deputy Chief Minister Prestone Tynsong, and MLA Vincent Pala. With the cathedral packed to capacity, the celebration was broadcast live on ten large screens outside the venue.

Fr. Richard Majaw, Episcopal Vicar, welcomed the congregation before the Mass, and the Apostolic Nuncio delivered the Holy See's mandate in Latin, translated into Khasi by Fr. Majaw.

In his homily, Archbishop Lyngdoh expressed gratitude for the gift of a new shepherd, drawing a parallel between Bishop Laloo and the biblical figure Joshua. He encouraged the new bishop to lead with humility and compassion, guiding the faithful through love and reconciliation.

During the post-communion message, Archbishop Girelli conveyed greetings from the Holy Father and commended the late Archbishop Dominic Jala for his years of dedicated service. He encouraged Bishop Laloo to remain steadfast in faith, invoking the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary and the inspiration of St. Joseph. Reflecting on the bishop's motto, "Those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength" (Isaiah 40:31), he emphasized the significance of trust in God during this Jubilee Year of Hope.

The offertory procession featured cultural performances by children in traditional Khasi and Garo attire, celebrating the region's rich heritage.

In his thanksgiving address, Bishop Laloo offered heartfelt gratitude to God and to Pope Francis for entrusting him with this responsibility. He also acknowledged the support of Archbishop John Moolachira and Archbishop Linus Neill.

Archbishop Lyngdoh, in a personal reflection, shared his own journey of faith, affirming that God's grace surpasses all limitations.

As Bishop Laloo begins his episcopal ministry, the Archdiocese of Shillong looks forward with hope to a future of renewed unity, service, and spiritual growth under his leadership.

POPE FRANCIS BEGINS EASTER SEASON BY RETURNING TO THE FATHER'S HOUSE

His Eminence Cardinal Kevin Farrell, the Camerlengo of the Apostolic Chamber, officially announced the death of Pope Francis: "With profound sorrow and a deep sense of loss, we mourn the passing away of our beloved Holy Father, Pope Francis, the Supreme Pontiff, the Vicar of Christ and the Successor of Peter. His demise marks an immeasurable loss to the entire Church". The Pope left for the eternal reward at 7.30 am Italian time.

A true shepherd of God's people, Pope Francis dedicated his life to spreading the Gospel, championing the cause of the poor and of the marginalized, and calling the world to embrace compassion, justice and care for creation. As the spiritual leader of Catholics, he guided the Church with wisdom, humility and an open heart, always seeking to promote fellowship and striving to bring people closer to God.

His legacy as the Successor of Peter, shepherding the Church from 2013 to 2025, will be forever cherished. His vision to transform the Church into a synodal community, one that listens, discerns, journeys together and embraces inclusivity, has left an indelible mark on the Church at all levels. His profound compassion for the poor and for those on the peripheries, especially migrants and refugees, gained recognition worldwide. His tireless efforts in peace building and fostering dialogue between nations will always be remembered. His outstanding commitment to interreligious dialogue remains praiseworthy and exemplary. His call to care for Mother Earth, through Laudato Si was highly appreciated and sparked a global movement.

A Press statement from the Bishop's House, Kohima said that details are awaited from Rome regarding the funeral of late Pope Francis. It also added that more details will be announced regarding the diocesan observance of the obeisance and respect to the late Pontiff Pope Francis.

REFLECTION ON THE ELECTION OF LEO XIV AS THE 267TH POPE (SUCCESSOR ST. PETER) BY HON'BLE JUSTICE AGGREY (NON-CATHOLIC FROM KENYA)

The election of Leo XIV is a kind of wisdom that is not loud. It does not seek attention. It does not scream to be seen. It simply exists, quietly, deeply and eternally. This is the wisdom of the Catholic Church, a body that has outlived empires, survived schisms, endured scandals and yet remains standing, steady and sacred. The Catholic Church is not a trend. It is not a social wave. It is an institution that walks with time but listens to eternity.

While the world busied itself with predictions, drawing up lists of notable Cardinals, analyzing political alignments and floating theories about who would be the next Pope, the College of Cardinals chose a different path. They ignored the noise. They turned away from the spotlight. They went into the sacred and returned with a name the world never imagined. Pope Leo the Fourteenth. A name that had not been whispered in the corridors of speculation. A man unknown to the headlines. A choice that silenced every analyst and reset the compass of divine selection.

This is not a coincidence. It is a confirmation of the divine order. What the Vatican did was not just elect a new Pope. They made a statement to the world. They reminded humanity that God does not follow trends. He sets them. That true leadership is not always found in the obvious. That sometimes, the one who carries the mantle is not the one the world expects, but the one heaven approves. This is the mystery of divine succession, wrapped in silence, clothed in prayer and sealed in sacred deliberation.

I am not a Catholic. But with every passing day, I see clearly why this institution continues to command reverence. It is not because its members are flawless. It is not because its leaders are immune to error. It is because, despite the human imperfection that exists within it, the Catholic Church remains rooted in sacred order, structured governance and spiritual discipline. It is an institution that has mastered continuity. Its longevity is not sustained by convenience but by consecration.

No church is perfect. No human institution is without fault. The Catholic Church is no exception. Within it are men and women of varying degrees of holiness, sincerity and struggle. But amidst all of this, there remains a deeply spiritual core, a centre that holds, a system that works, a rhythm that does not break. There are those within its walls who serve God in spirit and in truth, quietly, humbly, fervently. Their devotion is not a performance. Their faith is not a fashion. It is a life.

What happened in the election of Pope Leo the Fourteenth is not just a political or ecclesiastical event.

It is a mirror to the rest of the Christian world. It exposes by comparison the chaos that reigns in many modern church settings, particularly in the Pentecostal space. In some of these assemblies, power struggles have replaced prayer, and ambition has drowned anointing. Leadership is inherited like property. Elections are manipulated like business deals. The pulpit has become a platform for performance, not a place of transformation. The altar has become a showground, not a sanctuary.

Even among so-called brethren, love has grown cold. Loyalty is transactional. Brotherhood is hollow. It is a tragedy that many Pentecostal churches cannot even imagine holding such a transparent, spiritual and selfless process of succession. Helping one's fellow minister is seen as a threat. The idea of unity in leadership has been replaced with competition and suspicion. The sacred is being sacrificed on the altar of success.

But today, the Catholic Church has reminded us of something we have forgotten. That the kingdom of God is not noise but order. Not display but discipline. Not popularity but purity. It has reminded us that when God is allowed to speak, He will often choose the one no one expected. He will raise the man who is hidden. He will lift the one who has been in the secret place.

The election of Pope Leo the Fourteenth is a lesson to the Church and to the world. It is a call to return to structure, to sacredness, to spirit-led decision-making. It is proof that an institution can be old, yet not obsolete. Ancient, yet not irrelevant. Traditional, yet not stagnant. It is wisdom in action.

This is the wisdom of the eternal Church. This is the mystery of divine order. This is the power of the sacred. And in a world drowning in confusion, it shines like a light that cannot be hidden.

Let every ear that hears it listen. Let every eye that sees it learn. Let every heart that understands it return to the ancient path that leads to life.

Truly, God cannot be manipulated like many elections!! God's God forever!

POPE LEO XIV SAYS THE UNITY OF THE CHURCH 'IS NOURISHED BY FORGIVENESS AND MUTUAL TRUST'

Pope Leo XIV on Sunday said unity in the Catholic Church "is nourished by forgiveness and mutual trust" after bestowing the pallium on 54 new metropolitan archbishops on the solemnity of Sts. Peter and Paul, patrons of the city of Rome.

"If Jesus trusts us, then we too can trust one another, in his name," the pontiff said, extending his call to unity to all Christian denominations.

Speaking before he led those gathered in St. Peter's Square in praying the Angelus on June 29, the pope also recalled the witness of the apostles who were martyred. "Today is the great feast of the Church of Rome, born from the witness of the Apostles Peter and Paul and made fruitful by their blood and that of many other martyrs," he said, emphasizing that even today, "throughout the world there are Christians whom the Gospel makes generous and bold, even at the cost of their lives."

In an ecumenical appeal, the pope emphasized that this shared sacrifice creates a "profound and invisible unity among Christian churches," which he called, echoing Pope Francis, an "ecumenism of blood." Present during the Mass in St. Peter's Basilica on Sunday morning was Metropolitan Emmanuel of Chalcedon, heading the delegation of the Ecumenical Patriarchate sent to Rome by Bartholomew I for the solemnity of Sts. Peter and Paul — a celebration rich with ecumenical significance. In his remarks prior to the Marian prayer, the pope reaffirmed: "My episcopal service is a service to unity, and the Church of Rome is committed, by the blood of Sts. Peter and Paul, to serving communion among all Churches." Quoting the Gospel, the pope reminded that "the stone from which Peter also receives his name is Christ. A stone rejected by men that God has made the cornerstone." The basilicas of Sts. Peter and Paul, he pointed out, are located "outside the walls," signifying that "what seems to us great and glorious was once rejected and cast out for being in conflict with worldly thinking."

Leo invited all to walk "the path of the Beatitudes," where poverty of spirit, meekness, mercy, and the thirst for justice often meet with "opposition and even persecution." Yet, he affirmed, "the glory of God shines in his friends and along the way he shapes them, from conversion to conversion."

At the tombs of the apostles, "a millennial destination for pilgrimage," the pope encouraged everyone to discover that "we too can live from conversion to conversion." The New Testament, he recalled, does not hide the apostles' faults and sins, "because their greatness was shaped by forgiveness." Jesus, he said, "never calls only once. That's why we can always have hope, as the jubilee also reminds us." After the Angelus, Pope Leo XIV expressed his closeness with Barthélémy Boganda high school in Bangui, Central African Republic, "in mourning after the tragic accident that caused many deaths and injuries among students." Twenty-nine students died and more than 250 were injured in a stampede on Wednesday prompted by an accidental electrical explosion.

The pope also expressed "a heartfelt thought for the parish priests and all the priests working in Roman parishes, with gratitude and encouragement for their service." Leo recalled that the day's feast marks the annual Peter's Pence Collection, "a sign of communion with the pope and of participation in his apostolic ministry," and thanked "those who, through their contributions, support my first steps as the successor of Peter."
